Touching Story of a Brave German Girl.

A few months ago there arrived in Richmond with a party of Gen. Imboden's immigrants an interesting and sprightly German girl named Louise Bohn. Her rare beauty was a subject of frequent remark when she came ashore at Rocketts and during her stay in the city. She had left her home and friends in the fatherland, and crossed the seas to meet a lover from whom for fifteen months she had been separated by thousands of miles. He came to America in 1864, and landing at New York, entered the military service of the United States as a private in an infantry regiment of the regular army. Joining his company in Virginia, he fought for four months in the Valley, and then in the Tide-water region, until the memorable day of the surrender, when he was near Appomattox with the conquering army of Grant.

Of these things his betrothed was advised by frequent letters and their correspondence was uninterrupted until last August, when, after hearing that he was at Richmond, his letters suddenly ceased. After waiting for many weeks for tidings, she resolved to seek him, and reckless of consequences and unmindful of paternal advice, she came to America to find his grave or to make him a faithful wife. She hardly dared to hope that the latter would be her lot. Joining a company of immigrants, she placed herself under the protection of one with whom her father was acquainted, and reached Richmond, as before stated, in safety.

Here her inquiries in regard to her betrothed were rewarded with no tidings of his fate, and her friends having gone to Piedmont, Virginia, she soon found herself alone and penniless.—Whilst stopping at a second-class hotel, she met a handsome man, clad in the Federal blue, who represented himself as Captain Parsons, an army officer on furlough. He heard the girl's story, expressed deep sympathy in the case, and volunteered to assist her in the search for her missing friend. He told her a story of his wife and family in Bedford county, and with an apparent kindness of heart, offered her a temporary home with them. Overwhelmed with gratitude, she accepted his offer, and they started together on the cars. At Gordonsville the Captain said business compelled him to tarry over night, and accordingly they occupied separate rooms at a hotel near the depot.

Louise retired early, but had hardly composed herself to sleep when her traveling companion entered her chamber and revealed himself in his true colors. Her shrieks of fright were unheard save by him, but he was at length driven from the room foiled in his purpose, and his head wounded by a chair which the girl had used with all her strength in the struggle. The next morning he was missing, having, in all probability, taken the night train northward.

The poor girl kept her story until after returning to Richmond, three weeks ago. We now hear it from a friend in Hanover county, with whom she is now employed as a seamstress. The name of the man for whom she has suffered so much, was Casper Verricke. Any information of him, living or dead, if left at this office, will be communicated to his affianced.—Richmond Dispatch, 28th.

Mixture of Races.

A California correspondent writes that the mixture of races in that State is beyond all precedent in the history of mankind, and what the third or fourth generation may be like, or what language they will speak are questions to puzzle the scientific inquirer. He reports marriages between Yankees and Digger Indians, Irish and Chinese, Mexican and Malay, Portuguese and Sandwich Islanders, English-Canadian and negro, French and Apache, to say nothing of the more common intermarriages to be seen in all parts of America. And the way the English language must suffer in the mouths of the descendants of these oddly coupled people will be terrible. Even now the most familiar terms of Spanish have become engrafted on our English, so that they can never be detached again, and words from every language on earth, from Chinese to Kanaka, are are working in. He adds that a laughable illustration of the effect of this jumbling together of the races came under his observation the other day. He had entered a bootmaker's to have a little job done, and said to the shopkeeper, as a necessary preliminary, "You speak English?" His answer, delivered promptly and unhesitatingly, was "Si, senor; cermainment; you bet!" There were three languages all in one sentence, and the good man straightened himself up with a look of proud satisfaction at the thought that he could speak English like a native. He was an Italian.

Is Capital Going South?

At the close of the war it was made a subject of complaint that the South did not wish Northern people to settle in their midst, either as capitalists or laborers. It soon appeared that this was an error, and that the Southerners were, like all other people in the world, ready to sell lands or anything else when they were short of money. They were eager for Northern and European laborers; but their efforts to obtain both were scouted and ridiculed by the Northern press.—Owing to the agitation kept up, very few persons ventured to invest capital in the South. We were told that this was the fault of the "rebel" State governments, and that as soon as these were superseded, capital and labor would go South.—Well, it is nearly a year since the rule of the sword and bayonet was established there, and now negro-Radical conventions have full sway. The Radicals say their policy is triumphant. Will they please inform us if immigration is going South? Is capital going South? Are not Northern men coming away ruined? And does not every capitalist regard the investment of a dollar in the South, under this new government, as an act of supreme folly?

This is not all. The negroes are protesting against the efforts to bring down white laborers from the North. They want to get rid of the white men already there, and to have a charming Congo of their own. In St. Domingo they allow whites to live, but do not allow them to own real estate.

New Hampshire.

The gallant Democracy of New Hampshire are going into the coming Gubernatorial canvass with unusual vigor, and are carrying havoc and consternation into the ranks of the destructives.—Charles Libbay, heretofore the leader of the Radicals in New Hampshire, writes to the Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, resigning his place on said Committee, and clearly and patriotically stating his intention of working hereafter for the elevation of the white working men of his country, in preference to laboring for the aggrandizement of monopolists or the bastard christianizing of niggers. At the largest and most enthusiastic Democratic meeting ever held in New Hampshire, at Littleton on the 8th of January, the President, twenty-three Vice-Presidents and three Secretaries, were all gentlemen who had actively supported the Radical party to this time, and who now propose to atone for their errors in the past, by making every effort to rescue the old Granite State from Republican domination.

Thad. Stevens has to be carried to the Capitol in a chair. It is a stern necessity.

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Tuesday, February 4, 1868.

We published on Saturday, the report submitted by Maj. Graham and Capt. Durham, a minority of the committee on Suffrage, and expressed the belief that a very large majority of the white men of North Carolina concurred in the views and conclusions therein presented. We give, to-day, the report of the majority of the committee, embodying universal amnesty and universal suffrage—a second minority report presented by Messrs. Congleton, of Carteret, and Candler, of Buncombe, recommending the incorporation of a clause in the constitution disqualifying, as electors, all persons disfranchised by the Howard Amendment and the several acts of Congress concerning reconstruction, and submitting also an oath to be taken by every voter, requiring him to swear, among other things, that he accepts the civil and political equality of all men, and, still, a third minority report, prepared by Mr. French, of Chowan, on the subject of eligibility to office, which it is not now our purpose to notice. These are very brief abstracts of the contents of the reports on Suffrage before the Convention for consideration.

We suppose that the report of the majority of the committee will be accepted in all essential particulars. If the supposition be correct, the Republican party in North Carolina, through the action of its recognized leaders, will stand thoroughly committed to negro suffrage as a matter of principle. It abandons the plea of expediency—surrenders the idea that such a course must be adopted in order to conciliate Congress and prevent the passage of harsher laws for the governance of the States of the South, and declares for negro equality at the polls and in the jury-box, as a matter of right and justice. In other words, white men of North Carolina, it declares every dirty, ignorant and debased negro you may meet upon your streets or highways your equal, and clamors for his investment with the privileges you enjoy. It would place your lives, your property and your honor—everything that is dear to you—into his keeping. This is the platform upon which the Republican party will enter into the canvass for the ratification or rejection of the constitution, which the Convention now in session will frame. Under the leadership of unscrupulous and untiring men, it is already preparing for the conflict. Every means known to political tricksters by which to deceive and delude the people will certainly be adopted to obtain their support of its measures. Threats and intimidations, promises and appeals to cupidity and avarice—these will be instrumentalities in the accomplishment of the work.—Money has been and will be freely expended. The leagues are carefully attended to as powerful auxiliaries. The fears, the hates, the passions and the ignorance of the negroes are used and abused to secure their aid. Documents calculated and intended to poison their minds are circulated amongst them in multiplied thousands, and all the vast enginery of official patronage is brought into requisition.

What are we doing to defeat these schemes and schemers? Are the people aroused to the importance of this election, and are they advised of the nature of the questions at issue? We fear not. There has been too much indifference—too much apathy. We must get to work. Indifference must yield to patriotic purpose, and apathy must be succeeded by an era of intense activity and labor. The questions of negro suffrage and negro supremacy must be squarely met. We believe in politics, as Napoleon held in war, "that the best manner of defence is always to attack." We must wage a fierce, aggressive war upon this foul conspiracy against our peace and our honor Radicalism must be met now—fought now, fought always until its black cohorts are routed in utter confusion and dismay. There is danger, aye death in concessions, and timidity in this crisis is the most abject cowardice.

THE February number of our favorite, "The Land We Love," has reached us. It presents a rich and inviting table of contents—in fact is filled brimful of fat things. We respectfully invite the attention of our readers to an article written by its editor, Gen. D. H. Hill, defending himself from charges made by certain newspaper editors and correspondents immediately after the battle of Sharpsburg, and repeated by Mr. E. A. Pollard, the author of the work entitled the "Lost Cause." The article in question is styled "The Lost Dispatch," and completely vindicates its writer from the charges which were calculated so seriously to damage his reputation. How the dispatch which Gen. McClellan obtained came into that officer's possession is still a mystery. That it did not get there through the carelessness of Gen. Hill is shown by the article of which we have written. Our readers should, by all means, get the magazine and read the defence.

Report of the Sayings and Doings of the Cotton Shirt and Copperas Breeches Convention of North Carolina, as furnished by

(OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the Halls or in the Galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

EIGHTEENTH DAY.

MONDAY, Feb. 3, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 11 A. M. by the President in his usual excited, peculiar and eccentric manner.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Atkinson of the City.

Journal of Saturday read, compared with and corrected by the Standard's report, and approved.

A communication from the Young Men's Christian Association, asking the use of the Commons Hall for Bishop Atkinson to lecture in this evening, was read, and the request granted by the Convention, with an air of condescension, christian resignation, and patient, virtuous forbearance.

Harris, (nigger) of Wake, ushered in a petition from Ann Underdew (f. w. c.) praying for a divorce from her lawful and loyal husband, Gilliam Underdew, (f. m. c.) who the petition avers is "no better than he should be." The matter was referred to a committee, and the remarks of the Demosthenic commoner deferred to a more convenient season.

Mr. McCubbins, of Rowan, presented a memorial from citizens of Rowan county, praying a change and modification in the Revenue Swindle. Referred.

Mr. Abbott, from the country of "Shakers," from the committee on the "wherewith," again brought up the vexed question of Finance as connected with the per diem of delegates. In view of the expected visit of General Canby to the Convention this week, it was deemed best to let the matter rest, and for the present not negotiate the loan of ten thousand.

Mr. Eagland, of Granville, desiring to make "treason as odious" as loyalty had already been made odorous, submitted a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to report an ordinance declaring all contracts null and void based on Confederate currency, or where such currency was the consideration.

Mr. Duckworth, of Madison, Henderson, Buncombe and Transylvania, an ordinance in favor of the Sheriff of Henderson. Lies over.

Mr. Martin, of Stanley, in view of the fact that the Convention was consuming time and doing nothing, introduced a resolution providing that hereafter the Convention meet at 10, A. M., and adjourn at 2, P. M.

Hood, (nigger,) of Cumberland, moved to insert "three" for "two."

Mr. Heaton from Craven, moved that the hour of adjournment be left open—which was, by the gracious permission of Hood, agreed to.

Mr. Glover, of Hyde, introduced a resolution in regard to the "bastardy" lands of the State, as he elegantly expressed it, which was referred.

Mr. Petree, of Stokes, introduced a resolution providing that a committee of three be appointed to memoralize Congress for a reduction of the revenue tax on tobacco. Lies over.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Harris, (nigger,) of Wake, asked leave to call up his resolutions offered last week, in regard to the proposed committee of eight, to re-district the State, and moved its adoption, which was carried.

Ordinance of Mr. Glover, of Hyde, to revive debts, being next on the Calendar, was read.

Mr. Rich, of Pitt, moved an indefinite postponement, which prevailed.

Mr. Welker, of Guilford, one of the loyal political preachers with which North Carolina is cursed as effectually as any people ever were cursed by an evil, submitted an ordinance in relation to the admission of lawyers from other States to the bar of North Carolina. Provides that Superior Courts shall have power to license lawyers.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, insisted that it was an innovation, and his remarks were both able and well timed.

Mr. Abbott, from "Shaker" land, moved to refer to Committee on Judiciary, seconded by remarks of Mr. Heaton, of Craven.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, did not think it exactly republican to cut off any one from the bar.

After some filibustering on the part of the "loyal many," the matter was finally referred to the Judiciary committee.

Mr. French, from Bladen, offered an ordinance in regard to taxes, but at the request of a delegate, withdrew it.

Mr. French was several times choked off today by the chair to give the niggers a chance, and by the niggers themselves for a better chance, but Mr. F. bore it philosophically, as do all the loyal when the nigger delegates fire into them. It is doubtless regarded by Mr. French and his party as a compliment to be snubbed by a nigger, the former slave of some gentleman.

Mr. Candler, of Buncombe, an ordinance providing for the repeal of the law of general amnesty, passed by the Legislature of the State at the session of 1866–67, except in regard to females.

The killing looks of Mr. Candler stamp him as a ladies man, and thus do we account for his lenient disposition toward females; but Mr. Candler is a very weak brother, and from our position under the table, entangled as we were among the feet of the nigger reporter on the floor, we managed to get an eye on Mr. C. during the delivery of his speech in defence of the ordinance, and we pitied him, indeed we did. We listened attentively to Mr. Candler, and we understood every word he said, but send us down to the "archives of gravity" if we could tell what he meant. We presume, however, his desire was to afford a premium for desertion from the Confederate army, as in that case Mr. C. would benefit himself.

Mr. Heaton, from Craven, moved to lay Mr. Candler's ordinance on the table.

Mr. Candler said he didn't much "keer" what was done with it, but he would "ruther" that it was left where he could get hold of it, if he should want to see it at any subsequent time previous to adjournment, when he should be glad to take it home with him that his constituents might see it, and by its perusal satisfy themselves he had not been idle, as it was the faithful labor of thirteen days.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, from Craven, the ordinance was allowed to remain on the calendar, where Mr. Candler could "get holt" of and see it every day.

Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, moved to take up the relief bill to-morrow, as the first unfinished business. Carried.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, Mr. Heaton stated that the committee on preamble and bill of rights was not ready to report.

Mr. Watts, of Martin, (dread god of war,) moved a reconsideration of the vote, whereby the divorce case from Davie was indefinitely postponed on Saturday. Motion lost.

Mr. Abbott called up his ordinance in favor of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad.

The following is a copy of the Ordinance as read from the Clerk's desk:

AN ORDINANCE REDUCING THE AMOUNT OF BONDS AUTHORIZED TO BE ISSUED BY THE WILMINGTON, CHARLOTTE AND RUTHERFORD RAILROAD COMPANY.

WHEREAS, By an act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, ratified the 20th day of December, 1866, the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad Company was authorized to place upon its road-way property and franchise a First Mortgage, to secure an issue of Bonds not to exceed in amount Four Millions Dollars, which mortgage has been duly executed and recorded, according to the provisions of said act; and, whereas, the State holds a Second Mortgage upon said Road for Two Millions of Dollars, to protect which interest it is manifestly essential that the Bonds to be issued under said First Mortgage should be reduced in amount, and their value enhanced by the endorsement of the State, so that the Company may be enabled to complete its Road; therefore,

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the President of this Convention, or the Governor, or the Public Treasurer of the State, or either of them be, and he is hereby authorized and directed, in behalf of the State, to endorse the bonds authorized as aforesaid, to the amount of one million dollars, which endorsement shall be in the words and figures following, to wit: "The principal and interest of this bond is guaranteed by the State of North Carolina, by ordinance of the Convention, ratified —— day of ——, 1868." Provided, That the amount of bonds issued by authority of the said act of the General Assembly, shall not exceed in the aggregate two millions five hundred thousand dollars, and the remainder authorized to be issued, to wit: One million five hundred thousand dollars, shall be delivered to the President of this Convention, or to the Governor, or to the State Treasurer, and by him or them cancelled and destroyed.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from and after its ratification.

Mr. Abbott said it had been his intention to discuss the subject comprehensively at some length. He was willing to answer any question or give any information, and moved its adoption.

Mr. Sweet, from Craven, opposed its adoption. He regretted to have to oppose any matters introduced by his friend from New Hanover. He was not in favor of it. North Carolina was too poor, and it was better for her to submit to the loss involved, than to endorse the bonds of the railroad. He would give precedence to no one when any question for the good of the State came up. He was anxious to do anything for her good, and he trusted the Convention would not support it.

Mr. Abbott had hoped that they might arrive at a vote on the question, without discussion.—He was in favor of extending a helping hand to the people, and when it was done, they had not spent money without return for it. He had hoped the question would not come up, but as it had, he would favor it. He did not belong to the stand still party, and to the whining party. He was in favor of extending aid to all these propositions, and believed the people of the State would commend them. He thought it a measure to save the State $2,000,000 by putting its name on the mortgages. He would say in closing, if he was to vote against this measure, that when he went home, he would put this motto upon his forehead, "I am the man that cheated the State out of $2,000,000."

Mr. Sweet said that Mr. Abbott had misunderstood him.

Mr. Abbott said that he would state that these bonds could be negotiated at 90 cents.

(Here it was discovered that the hour had arrived for Mr. President Cowles to "make his toilet," when McDonald, of Chatham, was called to the chair, and the President retired in the hands of his valet de chambre.)

Mr. Tourgee, from Guilford, considered the question one of very great importance. He would oppose its passage in its present form, and offered the following amendment: Insert in section 1st, line 5th, after the word "State," the words "elected under the provisions of this Constitution," and after the word "destroyed" the words "Provided, further, That $500,000 of the remaining $2,500,000 of bonds be deposited with the Treasurer of the State as collateral security of the State for the above-named endorsement, and if the said Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad Company shall fail to pay either the interest or principal of said endorsed bonds, so that the State shall become liable for the same by reason of endorsement, and shall pay the same, then the State shall become the owner of said $500,000 of bonds; but if the said Railroad Company shall pay both interest and principal of said endorsed bonds, so that the State shall not be liable for the same by the reason of its endorsement, then the said $500,000 of bonds shall be the property of the said Railroad Company."

Mr. Laflin, of Pitt, offered an amendment to Mr. Tourgee's amendment which was to add to section 1st "or that said $1,500,000 of bonds shall be cancelled and destroyed by the Trustees of said first mortgage and a certificate shall be printed upon each of the remaining bonds certifying that $2,500,000 of bonds on all that are issued or are authorized to be issued under the deed of trust or mortgage delivered to them, and that the additional $1,500,000 of bonds have been cancelled and destroyed, and that said certificate shall be signed by each of the trustees."

Mr. Abbott said he would accept the amendments of Messrs. Tourgee and Laflin, provided Mr. Tourgee would withdraw his amendment to the fifth line of the 1st section.

Mr. Tourgee did not withdraw, and

Mr. Abbott called for the previous question.

Pending the calling of the previous question,

Mr. Heaton objected to any action on the subject until the reports from the different committees should be presented, that they might know whether they were going to have a government at all or not. The delegates here had been sent to frame a Constitution. He wanted the Convention to know whether there would be a Constitution framed before such minor subjects were acted upon, and therefore moved an indefinite postponement.

Mr. Abbott said his motion took the precedence.

Mr. Heaton held that he rose before his motion was seconded. If, however, gentlemen of this Convention were in favor of meeting this issue now, why let it come and let the previous question be sustained. He knew the want of railroads, and it was only a sense of absolute duty that caused him to speak against it, as it was not the time, and moved a postponement until the reports from the committees were brought in and acted upon.

The President decided that the question called for by Mr. Laflin, was the question before the House.

Mr. Heaton asked to try the sense of the House, to have the previous question put to a vote, in order to see whether it would be sustained or not. After voting it was decided in the negative. Mr. Heaton's motion to postpone its consideration indefinitely, being then in order, he withdrew in favor of

Mr. Abbott, who desired to have the subject disposed of, called for the ayes and noes, which was done, and the ordinance passed—ayes, 59; noes, 49.

Mr. Durham, of Cleaveland, moved to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Abbott moved to lay on the table.

On motion of Mr. Forkner, of Ashe, Alleghany, Surry, Watauga and Yadkin, the Convention adjourned amid confusion worse confounded till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

INNOVATIONS.

These Yankee improvements are the order of the day.

Not only is our State Treasury to be depleted, our prosperity blighted and our people ruined by the set of political black-legs now sitting on and devouring the prostrate body of the State, but our time-honored manners and customs are to be innovated, ridiculed, destroyed and forgotten.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, administered a fitting rebuke to the Abolitionists in the Convention yesterday, while opposing the mode of admitting lawyers to full communion at the bar of the State.

The matter was brought up by Mr. Tourgee, from Guilford, we think, who has such a thorough contempt for everything North Carolinian, except the niggers, which he doats on and kisses, that although a licensed attorney by the courts of that (to us) unknown country from whence he came, he will not receive a license from our Supreme Court. He therefore desires to destroy one of the main features of our hitherto excellent judiciary system, by empowering any Superior Court of law to license an attorney to practice anywhere, and before all the courts of the State.

This spirit of innovation is gaining ground, and so thoroughly are members bent on Yankeeizing the State government and the people, that three weeks of the session are consumed and nothing done.

A NEW TERM IN DEBATE.

Some one of the delegates to the cotton shirt and copperas breeches Convention, better acquainted with the romance of words than his fellows, introduced some days since, as an appropriate word in parliamentary debate, the expression, "Pandora's box," which is now the favorite expression in discussion, almost rivalling the "archives of gravity."

The expression is appropriate. The Convention is, as the Frenchman would say, one grand Pandora's box, out of which numerous and countless evils, wierd and ghostly imps, in the shape of constitutional delegates, are constantly issuing forth. Each political ghost, phantom of patriotism and mith of wisdom dreads the other, and the people may well dread them all.

IMPORTANT TO CLERKS AND SHERIFFS.

General Canby, commanding this military district, has decided that wherever, by the terms of military orders, the enforcement of a judgment is stayed, the collection of costs and fees incident to the same is likewise stayed.

Report of the Committee on Suffrage and Eligibility to Office.

The Committee appointed to prepare and report to the Convention an Article of Suffrage and Eligibility to office, submit the following report:

ARTICLE —. Suffrage.

SEC. 1. Every male person, born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years or upward, who shall have resided in this State twelve months next preceding the election, and three months in the county, in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed an elector.

SEC. 2. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and all the elections by the General Assembly shall be viva voce.

SEC. 2. The following classes of persons shall be disqualified for office: 1st, All persons who shall deny the being of Almighty God; 2nd, All persons who shall have been convicted of treason, or shall have been adjudged guilty of felony, perjury, or of any infamous crime, (unless such person shall have been fully pardoned,) or of corruption or mal-practice in office.

Minority Report.

We, the undersigned, a part of the committee appointed to prepare and report to the Convention an article on Suffrage and Eligibility to office, submit the following:

ELECTIONS.

SECTION 1. In all elections by the people, the electors shall vote by ballot, and the ballot shall be deposited by the elector in person.

ELECTION.

SEC. 2. Every citizen of the United States who shall have resided in this State one year, and in the county in which he offers to vote, three months next preceding the day of election, shall be deemed an elector, except as hereinafter provided.

1st. Those who have been convicted of infamous crime, since becoming citizens of the United States.

2. Those who have been judicially pronounced to be of unsound mind.

3. Those who have prevented or endeavored to prevent any voter from the free exercise of the elective franchise by threats, violence or bribery.

4. Those who are disqualified from holding office by the terms of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as article fourteen, and the act of Congress passed March 24, 1867, and the several acts supplementary thereto. Provided, That whenever said disqualifications shall be removed, as provided in said article, the person thus relieved shall be entitled to the elective franchise in this State.

5. Those who, during the late rebellion, inflicted, or caused to be inflicted, or were accessory to the crime of inflicting any cruel or unusual punishment upon any officer, soldier, sailor, marine, employee, or citizen of the United States, or in any manner violated the rules of civilized warfare

REGISTRATION.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to provide, from time to time, for the registration of all electors, but no person shall be allowed to register, vote or hold office without having first taken and subscribed to the annexed oath.

ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE.

SEC. 4. Every qualified elector shall be eligible to office.

OATH TO BE TAKEN.

I do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will support and maintain the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina; that I will never countenance or aid in the secession of this State from the United States; that I accept the political and civil equality of all men; and that I will faithfully obey the laws of the United States, and encourage others so to do; so help me God.

THOMAS J. CANDLER,
ABRAHAM CONGLETON.

Committee on Suffrage—Minority Report.

I concur in the report of the majority of the Committee, with this exception, that I would add to the two classes of citizens prohibited from holding office, a third, namely: All persons who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, until such disability be legally removed. JOHN R. FRENCH.

CITY AND STATE.

Arrested.

Duncan Matthis, an escape from the workhouse of Wake county, was arrested in the City by Officer Thompson on Sunday night.

House-Breakers About.

We learn that the smoke-house of Mr. Solomon King, who resides about six miles from the city, was broken into while the family were at church on Sunday, and that several sacks of flour and a considerable quantity of lard were stolen.

A Good Shot

General Lafflin, of Pitt, on yesterday, incidentally threw a shot in the buzzards' nest at the Capitol, the effect of which may be imagined.

In discussing the propriety of extending State aid to the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, he reminded delegates that there was such a thing as "a bourne from whence no politician ever returned," which persuasive reminder had a tendency to cause much shaking and smiting together of knees.

The Lecture.

The audience which greeted the distinguished divine, Bishop Atkinson, last evening, though not as large as it should have been, was, nevertheless, very respectable in point of numbers, and composed of the elite of the city.

In a pleasing, coloquial manner, he presented a series of most interesting observations upon the leading orators of Great Britain. In the present highly important era of British politics, when such names as Lord Derby, Mr. Gladstone, Mr. De Israeli, Mr. Bright, and others, are as "familiar in our mouths as household words," it was most instructive to hear their comparative merits discussed by such an observer as Bishop Atkinson. If his lecture is to be taken as a sample, we sincerely hope that the Young Men's Christian Association may be enabled soon to present to the citizens of Raleigh another such literary treat.

Mr. F. W. Anderson, Clerk and Treasurer of the city of Wilmington, has resigned.

Delegates to the State Conservative Convention will be passed over the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad for one fare.

The dwelling and kitchen of Mr. Dunard Hancock, in Newbern, were destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The origin of the fire was accidental. The buildings burned were valued at $5,000, and were not insured.

Mr. David McRae, a Scottish author of some repute, was to have given a reading in Wilmington last night, for the benefit of the Ladies Benevolent Society of the city. Mr. McRae visits the South to collect material for a history of the late war, which he designs writing.

The publication of the Milton Chronicle, which was announced some time ago, has been delayed by the sickness of Mr. Evans, its editor. We are glad to learn that he has recovered and that the Chronicle will make its appearance in a very few days.

The following high compliment to our North Carolina Magazine appeared in the Montana Democrat, a journal published in the very far West:

"'The Land We Love,' for November, published at Charlotte, N. C., by Hill, Irwin & Co., and edited by that gallant Confederate soldier, General D. H. Hill, whose valiant deeds, as a brave and meritorious officer, are familiar to every soldier of the Confederate army, has been received. The magazine contains ninety-six pages of choice reading, and numerous rich engravings. The Land We Love is something the people of the South have long needed, and it should be gratifying to them that the flash literary stuff of New England has been superseded by a sterling publication in their midst, and by a gentleman whose devotion to the cause in which he battled has endeared him to the people of the loveliest and richest section of our country."

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address G. W. DEEMS,

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

The Mystery of Reminiscences.

TRANSLATED FROM SCHILLER.

Who and what gave the wish to woo thee—
Still, lip to lip, to cling for aye unto thee;
Who made thy glances to my soul the link—
Who made me burn thy very breath to drink—
My soul in thine to sink?

As from the conqueror's unresisted glaive
Flies, without strife, subdued, the ready slave;
So, when to life's unguarded fort I see
Thy gaze draw near and near, triumphantly,
Yields not my soul to thee?

Why from its lord doth thus my soul depart;
Is it because its native home thou art?
Or were they brothers, in the days of yore,
Twin-bound, both souls, and in the links they bore
Sigh to be bound once more?

Were once our beings linked and intertwining,
And, therefore, still for thee, my heart is pining,
Knew we the light of some extinguishing sun,
The joys remote of some bright realm undone,
Where once our souls were one?

Yes, it is so; and thou wert bound to me
In the long vanished hours eternally;
In the dark, troubled tablets which enroll
The past, my muse beholds this blessed scroll,
One with thy love, my soul.

Bound us, in waters of delight, forever
Voluptuously flowed the heavenly nectar, river,
We were the master of the seal of things,
And where the sun bathed, Truth's mountain springs
Quivered our glancing wings.

Weep for the godlike life we lost afar;
Weep!—Thou and I its scattered fragments are;
And still the unconquered yearning we retain,
Sigh to restore the rapture and the reign,
And grow divine again.

And, therefore, came to me the wish to woo thee,
Still lip to lip, to cling for aye unto thee;
This made thy glances to my soul the link;
This made me burn thy very breath to drink—
My life in thine to sink.

And, therefore, as before the conqueror's glaive
Flies without strife, subdued the ready slave;
So, when to life's unguarded fort I see
Thy gaze draw near and near, triumphantly,
Yielding my soul to thee.

Therefore, my soul doth from its lord depart,
Because, beloved, its native home thou art;
Because the twins recall the links they bore,
And soul with soul, in the sweet kiss of yore,
Meets and unites once more.

Thou, too—ah! there thy gaze upon me dwells—
And thy young blush the tender answer tells;
Yes, with the dear relation still we thrill
Both lives, tho' exiles from the homeward hill—
One life all glowing still.

Regarding Gas.

In 1814, when the Royal Society visited the London Gas works, there was only one gasometer, holding fourteen thousand cubic feet of gas. When Sir William Congreve reported on them in 1822, the Peter Street Station alone was producing annually one hundred and eighty-four thousand cubic feet of gas. There were annually used in London three hundred and ninety-seven million cubic feet, lighting sixty-one thousand two hundred and five private, and seven thousand two hundred and sixty-eight street lamps. This did not include several private companies. Yet gas was still so little used in the poorer districts, that in the Whitechapel works two large canvas bags were used as gasometers.

In 1827, the number of public gas companies in the United Kingdom amounted to two hundred. The young giant grew fast. The gas pipes in and around London now extend over upwards of two thousand miles, and are still extending as fast as the feelers of Victor Hugo's terrible sea monster.

In 1792, the blue gas flame first sprang hissing up to do real work for man, when Mr. Murdoch applied a light to the pungent coal spirit. It is now 1867, and we are still far from comfortable with our new servant. Its price in London is enormous, arbitrary, and artificial, and the gas itself gets daily feebly paler and more full of carbon, in spite of all the progress of science. It is also still necessary to discover some means by which, when gas is burned in sitting rooms the air may be kept moderately cool and moist.—All the Year Round.

A Romantic Story.

The St. Louis Republican tells the following:

"During Price's raid in 1864, a skirmish took place on the line of Charlton and Howard counties, some four miles from Glasgow, in which one of the rebs was left on the ground dangerously wounded in the neck. While in this condition, Miss Sarah J. Smith, a school teacher in the vicinity, happened to pass by. Seeing the wounded man, she went to him and staunched his wounds, probably saving his life. She remained with him until near nightfall, when he requested her to leave, as his companions would probably come in the night and take him away. If not, she would find him where he was in the morning, living or dead. He said he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concerning him afterward. A few days ago, says the Glasgow Times, Miss Smith, (who still resides in the neighborhood,) received a letter from the administrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., informing her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legatee of $50,000 in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew, and only heir, the H. C. McDonald named in connection with the incident of 1864. This is all the story.

Information Wanted.

Will some Republican answer this:

If the Confederated States by act of secession or result of the war which "the Republican party carried to so glorious a termination" are not out of the Union, how can Congress declare an amendment to the Federal Constitution ratified which has not received the sanction of three-fourths of the thirty-seven States, as by the Constitution required?

Again—

If the Southern States are not out of the Union by what right are they jumbled into a Southern Despotism, given over to one man rule as is proposed?

Again—

If they are out of the Union, and on no other base can a Despotism be there established, how came they out, when went they out, and in what way was the war a success?—La Cross Dem.

Sold.

We heard a good story of a Main street merchant, who, while selling a bill of goods the other day, was badly "sold" himself by a guest of his own house, who successfully played the role of old Mrs. Jones, from the country. The merchant was unusually polite, and rose early the next morning to see the old lady to the cars, but by that time she had been metamorposed into a youthful, gay and witty personage, who was as tantalizing in her real as she had been deceptive in her assumed character. The merchant good naturedly acknowledge the corn.—Lynchburg Virginian.

The question, "Are watches luxuries?" it is said, created quite a division of sentiment at the Worcester Manufacturers' Convention. The Boston Journal says: "If an engineer was running a train on time on a single track, the passengers on board would probably settle the point by a decisive vote."

A New Haven wife presented her husband with a deed of a house and land, the other day, bought with her pin money.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
